NURSE

25 EXT. HIGH SCHOOL - NURSE OFFICE - DAY

25

Tim enters the NURSE's office he drops his bag on the floor and then drops his weight onto the chair.

NURSE

(Jokingly)

Mr. Harker what can I do for you?
Sprain, fracture, class note?

Tim straight faced.

TIM

I has a panic attack in Science class.

NURSE

( Not sure if he's telling the truth.)

Really? That doesn't seem like you.

TIM

Yeah, well. I started seeing this things and I couldn't get it to go away.

Nurse is starting to believe him.

NURSE

Hallucinations? Really? How have you been sleeping?

TIM

( Sincere)

Not for a while.

She checks his temperature.

NURSE

Maybe that why you've been having problems on the field. I saw you game last week.

TIM

(Mouth full of thermometer)

Uhh, Don't remind me. I can't seem to focus and I'm so tired all the time.

The Nurse takes the thermometer. Looks at it.

NURSE

Well, you don't have a fever. You look sick, have you been to the doctor?

TIM

No, but I have an appointment for next week.

NURSE

OK, Here is some Ibuprofen for your head. You need to rest and no football practice tonight.

TIM

( Not happy)

What?! I'm fine now.

Tim tries to get off the chair. He feels weak and sit's back down.

NURSE

( Caring)

Don't even try it. If you push yourself you could make it so you can't play for a long time and you don't what that right?

TIM

( Depressed)

No, I guess not.

Tim gets up and struggles to grab his backpack. Tim leaves.
